

RULES

2017 HOLLARD MTB SERIES

1. The series will consist out of 8 races as indicated.
2. Hollard Namibia will be the main sponsor only but not exclusive sponsor in all the series events.
3. Raceday Events will manage the series on behalf of the main sponsor.
4. All races will be NCF sanctioned and part of the National Ranking Series.
5. NCF & UCI rules and regulations are applicable to all races.
6. Category changes during the series will result in exclusion of any ranking points.
7. The male and female rider with the highest points after all 8 races will be crowned the series winner.
8. Points system is based on the UCI XC points table.
9. Only UCI categories, Elite and higher as well as junior (Under 18) will be allowed to enter the full marathons, younger age categories may enter for the half marathons. (Also note that junior riders participating in the full marathons will not be considered for points in the National Rankings table)
10. Entrants to adhere to the different rules of each race as events are still organized by different organizers and are not the exclusive ownership of Hollard Namibia.
11. At least 3 races must be completed by all participants to qualify for a year end podium position at prize giving, irrespective of ranking or the total points accumulated.
12. Participants completing all 8 races will qualify for a special series trophy, irrespective of points and ranking.
13. Should 2 or more riders end up with an even amount of points after 8 races, the following rules will be applicable to determine the winner:
 - a. 1st-Most races completed.
 - b. 2nd Most nr of highest positions.
 - c. 3rd Highest position in final race.
14. All series enquiries to be directed to raceday@raceday.events
15. The series manager/event organizers decision will be final.